Thursday 2nd March 2023

It would be fantastic if children could come dressed as one of their favourite book characters on this day. For example - they could be Harry Potter, The Gruffalo, Percy Jackson, The Worst Witch, Alice in Wonderland, Mr Bump plus many, many more! This could be anything from making a simple hat to putting together an outfit using their existing wardrobe and creative minds! There is absolutely no expectation on children to wear or produce elaborate costumes for this day. World Book Day is all about sharing, relishing and immersing ourselves into the wonderful world of books.

There will be a stop and drop reading activity every hour on the hour for fifteen minutes, which will enable children the opportunity to share / read a book from home or simply listen to a book read aloud. There will also be book quizzes and explorations within class of their favourite book characters and stories.

World Book Day vouchers will be sent home with your child, and these may be exchanged for one of the special books published for World Book Day or be used towards a book of their choice. A printable version of the voucher is also available via this link <https://www.worldbookday.com/books/>. This voucher may be exchanged at participating book shops. Examples of the books can be seen on the poster in the reception area. More information and activities linked to World Book Day can be found at the website: www.worldbookday.com

Many thanks for your support
